

Sara Zeineddine holds a Master's Degree in Economic Policies from Saint-Joseph University and a Master's of advanced studies degree in Public Administration from the University of Quebec. She worked as an Economist within the Ministry of Finance and her tasks focused mainly on macro-modeling and Medium Term Fiscal frameworks. Previous to that, she worked with the Ministry of Education and Higher Education for almost 8 years on project implementation, monitoring and evaluation and Education Economics.